IV. QUESTIONNAIRE

The information requested below is needed for legally permissible reasons, including, without limitation, national security considerations, a legitimate occupational qualification or business necessity. The Civil Rights Act of 1964 prohibits discrimination in employment because of race, color, religion, sex or national origin. Federal law also prohibits discrimination based on age, citizenship and disability. The laws of most states also prohibit some or all of the above types of discrimination as well as some additional types such as discrimination based upon ancestry, marital status and sexual preference.
