

Social Services Information

Belmont County Department of Job and Family Services

Our mission is to provide the community with the necessary resources to support and encourage individuals and families in achieving their goals for self-sufficiency; to protect children from child abuse and neglect; to assist single parents with obtaining the financial resources necessary for raising their children; to protect adults from elder abuse and self-neglect; and to assist the public in obtaining their first, new, or better job.

<http://belmontcdjfs.com/>

Community Action Commission of Belmont County

We are a private organization, founded in 1965, administering many federal, state and locally funded programs. These programs target areas, such as employment, housing, education, health, nutrition, transportation, childcare, and income management. It is our goal to alleviate the conditions of poverty in our county.

<http://www.cacbelmont.org/>

Information Helpline

Information Helpline is a social service agency located in downtown Wheeling, West Virginia. Our goal is to connect people in need with agencies that can help, offering hope in times of crisis. Information Helpline's service area includes Brooke, Ohio, Marshall, and Wetzel counties in West Virginia and Belmont and Monroe counties in Ohio.

<https://www.informationhelplineuov.org/>

211

211 is the most comprehensive source of locally curated social services information in the U.S. 211 is committed to being the first, most essential resource to anyone who needs help. We help thousands of people overcome barriers and address challenges every day.

<http://www.211.org/pages/about>